Dear Ms. Enck:

The Puerto Rico Department of Justice is interested in obtaining updated information regarding the corrective action activities that the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) is monitoring at the Commonwealth Oil Refining Company (CORCO) site in Peñuelas, Puerto Rico. We have been in communication with Mr. Ramón Torres, from the EPA Response and Remediation Branch–Caribbean Environmental Protection Division, and he told us to make an official request directly to the Regional Administrator.

Through this means we formally request all available information that the EPA may have regarding the works conducted at the CORCO site.

Sincerely,

César R. Miranda
